

Eiheiji Town Disaster Action Guide

Earthquake

01 Earthquake occurs

02 Protect yourself

Protect your head
Keep away from utility poles, vending machines, etc.

03 Ensure surrounding safety

Secure exits
Move to open spaces or parks

If fire breaks out
119

04 Evacuate

Flood Damage

01 Heavy rain/Typhoon

02 Gather information

Japan Meteorological Agency

- Weather information
- Disaster information

03 Evacuation decision

Alert Levels / Evacuation Information
Alert Level 3	Elderly etc. evacuate	Alert Level 4	Evacuation order	Alert Level 5	Emergency safety securing
Elderly and vulnerable persons evacuate from dangerous areas		All persons evacuate from dangerous areas		Life-threatening danger. Secure safety immediately

Useful Information During Disasters

Safety tips

- Disaster information
- Evacuation information
- Communication cards

Fukui Prefecture Disaster Information Web

Language options available

Check disaster and evacuation information in Fukui Prefecture on a map

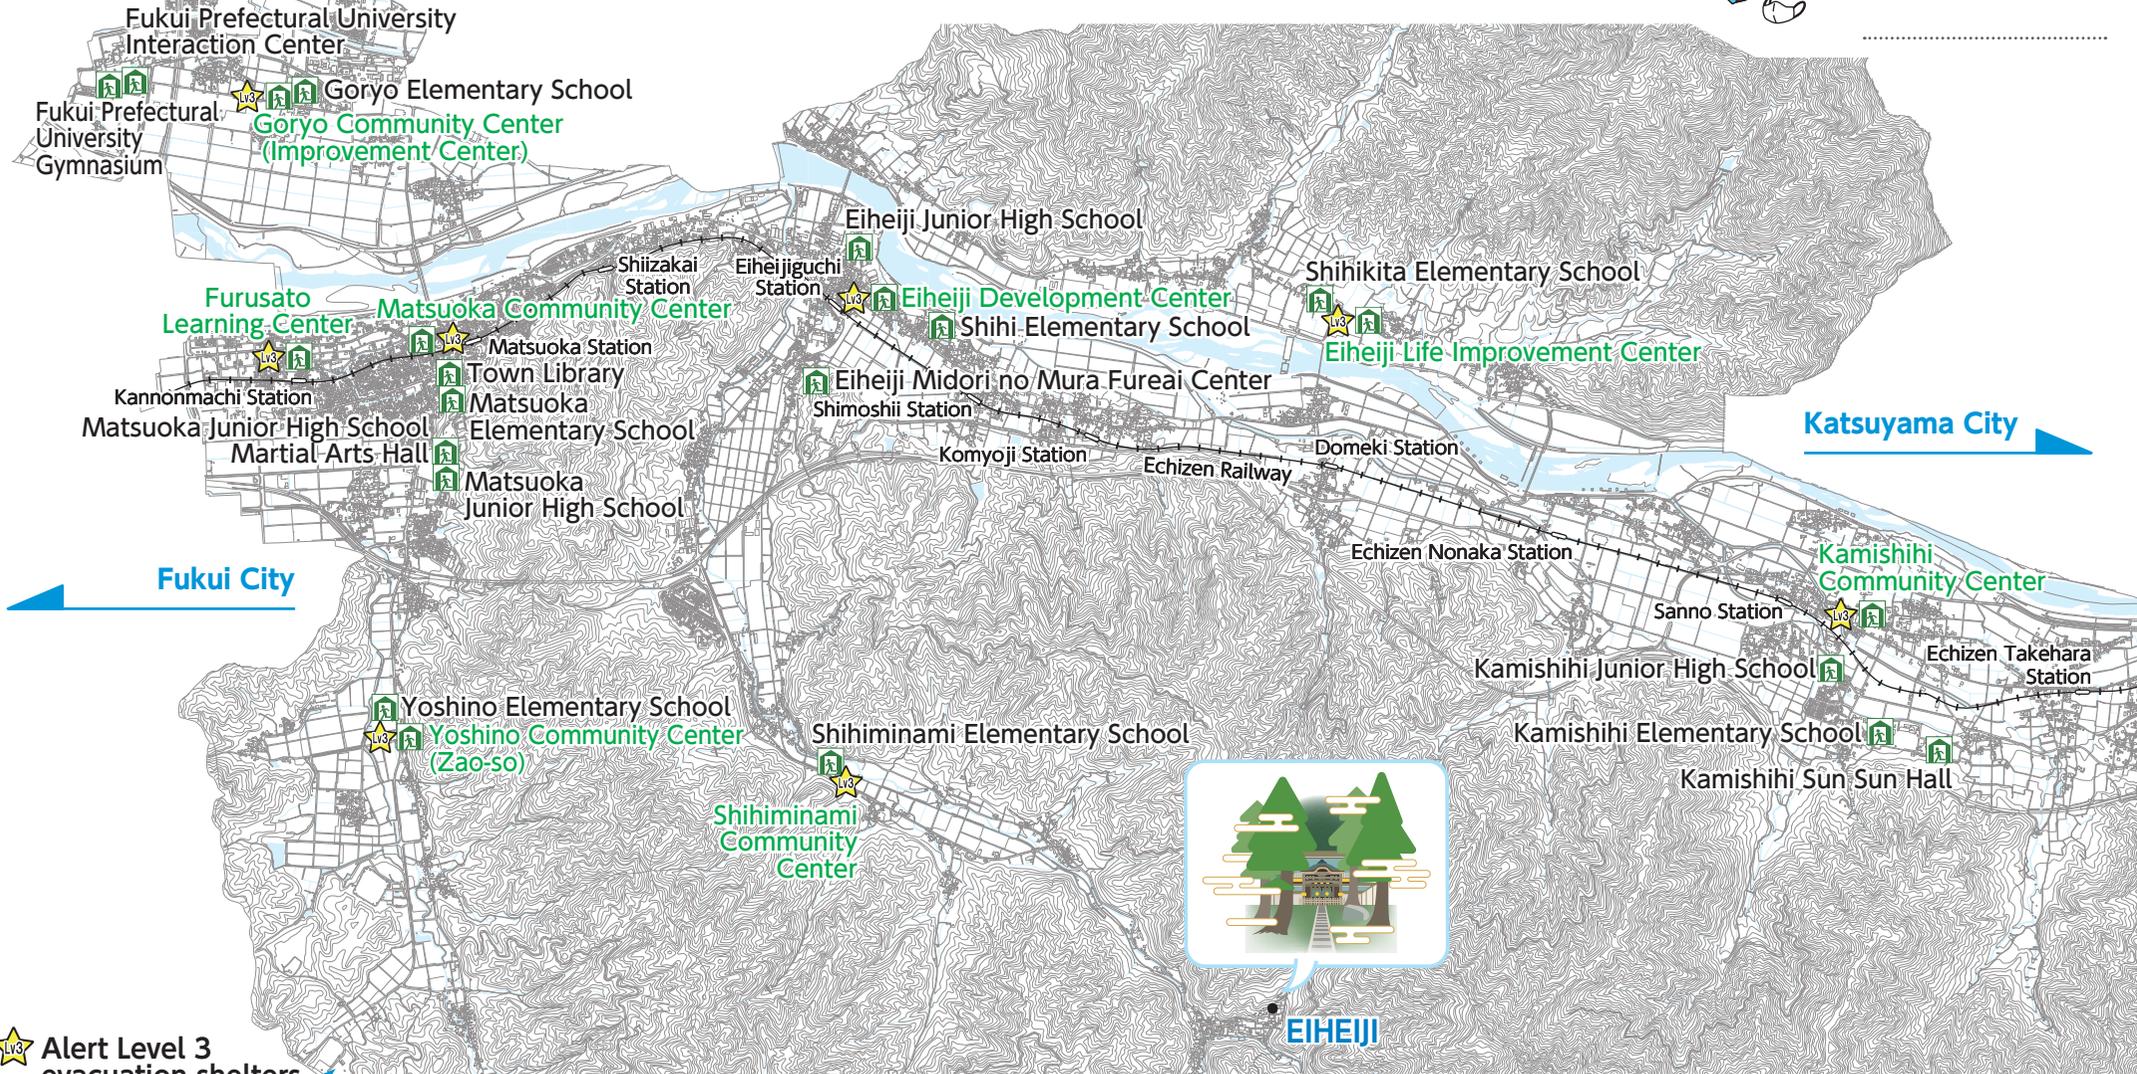

Evacuation shelter locations can be checked on the back.

Eiheiji Town Evacuation Shelter Map

Emergency Grab-and-Go Items Checklist

- Food & drinking water
- Daily necessities
- Information & communication tools
- Other
- Valuables
- Clothing & cold weather gear
- Infection prevention measures
- Items needed for yourself and your family

Alert Level 3 evacuation shelters

These shelters are prioritized for initial opening. When Alert Level 3 is issued in weather information, evacuate to these shelters.

Legend

- Alert Level 3 evacuation shelters
- Wide-area evacuation shelters

Approved by the Director-General of the Geospatial Information Authority of Japan in accordance with the Survey Act (Use) R.7JHS-485

Transportation Service Information

Echizen Railway operation information

Hapi-line Fukui operation information

JR-West operation information

Komatsu Airport website